Vice President

Sarah Henshaw

Sarah Henshaw is a nonprofit professional with over 20 years of partnering with communities, nonprofits, and individuals to build prosperous, inclusive communities.

She has responded to multiple international and domestic disasters, including Hurricane Maria, Hurricane Mitch, Hurricane Katrina, the 2004 tsunami in Indonesia, multiple flooding events in Guatemala and Honduras, and now multiple flooding events in Vermont.

Following Vermont's July 2023 flooding in her home county of Lamoille, Sarah joined with health and human service leaders in creating Lamoille Area Recovery Network (aka LeARN) and serves as LeARN's Coordinator.

Other positions:

☐ American Red Cross NNE Board of Directors
